Airlines collect development fee at Delhi

All airlines operating from Delhi will collect the development fee of Rs 200 and Rs 1,300 from each departing domestic and international passenger, respectively. The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) has informed all the airlines, which have started collecting the fee accordingly, official sources said on Monday. The airlines, in return for collecting the fee, levied by Delhi International Airport Ltd (DIAL), will get collection charges of Rs 5 per passenger.
